

SAVF Huis Dien Bothma

Spognuus

Members of Terror Park's Contours Ladies Gym had a special win last Saturday. The well-earned trophy was presented to them at the gym and fitness club at the Drive to Success Park. The gym also donated utility and food to SAVF Huis Dien Bothma Old Age Home. Seen here is Contours Ladies Gym's Vivienne Tsoke holding the trophy over in Debbie Parry.

To mark World AIDS Day, the nursing staff from Huis Dien Bothma, in Jansen Park, were visited by the Mobile Wellness Clinic from the Corridor Empowerment Project where they tested for HIV, checked their blood sugar and cholesterol levels and worked out their BML. Seen here are Lizzy Khanyile, Anthea Mohammed, Donna Lucia-Holmes, Favour Kutama, Dinco Mkhabela, Emma Zothwane, Brilliant Dhlamini, Zanele Dhlamini and Lea Strydom (chief professional nurse).

Residents of Huis Dien Bothma treated to a braai

The residents of Huis Dien Bothma were treated to a Christmas braai on December 8.

The braai was organised by one of the management members, Tertius Wessels, in conjunction with the home and his contacts.

Aubrey Soyman, the son of one of the residents, sang for the residents. Gerhard Albertain not only assisted with the braai but also donated 2 000 boxes of tissues to the home.

Valentines Day

Valentine's Day party for senior citizens

Valentine's Day can be a lonely holiday for the elderly people of Huis Dien Bothma, because some of them may have spent the day with their families or friends. To make their day special, SAVF Huis Dien Bothma Old Age Home organised a Valentine's Day celebration for the elderly on Thursday 1st.

Friday, March 1, 2013

Some during the event are members of V Bothma's Theres and some of the elderly people of Huis Dien Bothma.

MRR SPREADS THE LOVE

althebe, Rigand Janwell treated the elderly residents of Huis Dien Bothma, in Jansen Park, to some delicious meals on Valentine's Day. Jeff Matthee, MRR director, says: "It is important to show appreciation to those who are contributed towards society and the community." Seen here are the staff of MRR with some of the residents of Huis Dien Bothma along with Tielke Mertens, manager of the home.

SAVF Huis Dien Bothma recently received a wonderful donation of a big screen TV by East Rand Toyota. Seen here with the donated big screen TV are Martin Erwee (East Rand Toyota), Tielke Mertens, manager of Huis Dien Bothma, Anthea Kötze and her son Kian, residents Cathy Nel, Mienie Richter, Annetjie van Hedsdingen and Nellie de Jager.

Tehuis sorg goed vir oues

Beeld Maandag 28 Januarie 2013

Wanneer 'n tehuis spog met 'n geskiedenis van 'n paar dekades, weet jy daar word in vrede en veiligheid goed omgesien na die inwoners.

Huis Dien Bothma in Boksburg is op 1 November 1970 geopen, maar die Boksburg-tak van die Suid-Afrikaanse Vrouefederasie (SAVF) bestaan al van 1911. Dien Bothma, na wie die tehuis genoem is, was van 1929 lid en tussen 1948 en 1980 voorsitter van die SAVF.

Deesdae spog die tehuis met 65 kamers wat sowat 124 inwoners huisves, terwyl daar ook nog 26 woonstelle op die terrein is waar bejaardes woon wat na hulself kan omsien. 'n Nuwe vleuel is verlede jaar geopen waar tussen 18 en 20 bejaardes gehuisves word wat spesiale sorg benodig.

'n Werkmag van sowat 85 mense, van skoonmakers en tuinwerkers tot Tielke Mertens, die bestuurder, lewer gehaltesorg.

Volgens Vivienne Tauto, finansiële hoof van die tehuis, is geldsake altyd 'n teer punt.

"Onverwagte noodgevalle waar vinnig voorsiening vir nuwe inwoners gemaak moet word, is 'n groot uitdaging," sê Tauto. – Wolfram Zwecker
